UNCLAIMED ESTATE.

Awaiting a Rightful Owner in Texas.

Mr. Chas. King Receives an Interesting Communication.

Mr. Chas. King, the well-known saloon-keeper, today received from a lawyer in Meridian, Texas, a letter making inquiry for one Aaron B. King, who, it says, emigrated from McCracken county about 1835 and settled in Texas. Several years ago he was killed and left a valuable estate, and the administrators claim, is very valuable.

Mr. King once had an uncle named Aaron King, but he resided in Virginia and not Kentucky. So far as Mr. King has been able to ascertain he had no "B" in his name.

He will investigate the matter, however, and his friends hope he will find himself heir to the unclaimed estate.

Y. M. C. A. Book Reception.

On Thanksgiving night the women's committee of the Y. M. C. A. will give a book reception. The result of a similar reception last Thanksgiving was the addition of about 300 books to the library and a very pleasant time for all who came. It is hoped that the results this year will be even more gratifying.

A splendid program has been arranged, consisting in part of a gymnastic exhibition by the younger members of the association, and in addition the very best of musical numbers will be given. There will be no admission fee charged, each person simply bringing a book or several of them. Now just a word about the books that can best be used. Any standard work of fiction, history, poetry, philosophy, science or ethics, the best of modern writers of travel or biography and the standard works of reference. Whatever the book, let it be selected with reference not simply to give something but to give something that will be helpful or really entertaining and instructive. The library is now very largely patronized and its usefulness, it is hoped, will be increased many fold by the results of this book reception.

RAILROAD RUMBLINGS.

Items of Interest Relative to the Railroads and Railroad People.

N. C. AND ST. L. MESSAGE.

After a week's silence Mileage greets you again.

Conductor Sam Sugars is now high balling the turn around—for the present.

The switch engine is kept going these days, Buck and Engle bawling her deck.

Engineer Jas. Spence left on 104 this a. m. to run the switch engine for a time at Memphis.

Mr. O. Nail, who has been flagging at Sixth and Norton for a short time, will retire tomorrow.

Mr. John Kelton, the foreman of the round house, is feeling quite unwell, but is too gritty to give up.

Engineer Holmes on the Memphis switch engine takes a lay off for a few days to look after his Mississippi plantation.

"Red" Singleton and "Whippoorwill" Frank Morthland were doing the circular act on local for Conductor Austin this a. m.

The report that Engineer Mike Duffy was married last night at Jackson, Tenn., cannot be traced to any reliable source.

Engineer Sam Lowe brought train 103 in on the dot last night and turns the 309 back to her regular eagle eye, Harry Thornberry today.

Harvey Garner, the kid "Con," came in on 113 this morning. Harvey says he always hits the bumping posts at each end of the line on the dot.

Emory Tabacott, an old time fireman on this line and a Paducah raised boy, is in Memphis today on his way home after several years absence in Texas.

Mr. Spence Castle, the clerk in the mechanical department who has been visiting in Michigan lately, is expected back on the 28th. The boys will be glad to greet him.

The party of hunters who passed over the line a few days ago from Nashville to the wilds of Arkansas in special car, returned yesterday with their car filled with all kinds of game.

On Sunday morning's train 104 south bound, a wedding took place while the train was at full speed. A Mr. Barnhardt, a member of the bridge gang and a Miss Jones, of Dexter, boarded the train at that place and at Hazel Squire H. C. Little joined them and united the couple in the holy bonds of matrimony at the rate of 50 miles an hour.

Brakeman J. M. Ealey on arrival yesterday found a little stranger at his house, who greeted him with a yell that was equal to a Comanche's loudest warwhoop. It was a boy and pulled down the beam at the 12 pound notch. Mr. and Mrs. Nichols the genial proprietors of the railroad house which bears their name, are the happy grand parents of the little whopper, and their Thanksgiving dinner will be all the better for his coming.

The Hit Dog Do How!

Our onliest "Local Photographer" heads an article, evidently meant to be a reply to a little expose of his methods given by Cook Bros., who first introduced the flash light process in Paducah, "Hit a Dog and He Will Howl." and then proceeds by his temperate use of choice phrases and rhetoric picked up at some lively stable to prove the assertion to be true for he howls. (Nobly) rears on his hind legs and paws, as it were, but alas! he is under the belt with the charge that they were once labored. Just think of it! Actually labored, and having laid the charge, proceeds to eternally bark them from the sacred precincts of art, and especially "photography."

Laboring people don't go with ye "Onliest Local Photographer." He would have his head bashed in by the press of Clay from the leadership of his party, and the great Abraham Lincoln from the White House, because they had once tolled instead of "bunco steering" for their daily bread. The "bunco steerer" is evidently in the employ of ye local photographer, else why does he talk so much about confidence men, etc., when his agent is the original bunco which Cook Bros. know to their pecuniary sorrow.

Cook Bros. wish to announce here that they are glad to do the photograph work of laboring people and don't charge them anything extra either. Moreover, many of the leading families of Paducah will be surprised to learn that the artistic work in their possession done by Cook Bros. is not art at all, but something else, because the "onliest local photographer" has said so, and he is the onliest judge of photography in this country or anywhere else. Still, if you want your work done by those who introduced the process here, whose work is guaranteed, see Cook Bros., and also see their big holiday offer.
